AS WE GATHER: Our Reading of the day is Luke 4:1-12. In this account, Jesus is “full of the Holy Spirit,” having just been baptized (3:21–22). The Holy Spirit leads our Savior not to glory but to suffering. Jesus is tempted by the devil. There are three temptations. Each centers on and challenges the identity of Jesus—which Satan well knows—as the Son of God. Exhausted after fasting for forty days, Jesus engages Satan in spiritual combat, overcoming every temptation by the power of God’s Word. The devil tempted Jesus to sin, but Jesus, true God and true man, did not sin. He kept God’s Law on our behalf and became the sinless sacrifice for our sins so that we might have forgiveness and new life. The devil tempts me, and I often give in. In Christ, God forgives my sin, provides all that I need for this life and the next, and gives me power to overcome temptation.
