AS WE GATHER: Our Bible Reading of the Day is John 2:1-11. In this text, we see that Mary was there. She was possibly a friend of the bridal couple, since she seems to have had some involvement in the banquet and so was aware of the problem with the wine running low. Learning about the lack of wine, Mary turns to Jesus for help. And Jesus gives it. Jesus commanded the servants to fill the jars with water, and then He turned that water into about 110 gallons (estimates vary) of premium wine, astonishing the steward, the groom, and all present. The text concludes by saying that there were two results of this miracle, or sign. One is that it revealed the glory of the Lord and demonstrated the divinity of Jesus. That is the function of all miracles... to confirm the truth of the words of the prophet. The second result is that the disciples believed in Jesus. So, too, when we learn of the signs that Jesus did, we find that God strengthens our faith by the power of His Word. Through His Word and Sacraments, Jesus shows He is my Savior and God.
