AS WE GATHER: The Reading of the Day is from Matthew 6:25–34. Jesus preaches to all believers, those who are “poor in spirit” and therefore possess God’s kingdom by grace, through faith (Matthew 5:1–3). He has taught His followers to pray for spiritual, heavenly blessings in the Lord’s Prayer (6:5–14) and to find lasting treasure in heaven, not on earth (6:19–24). Now, He assures His disciples that the Father cares for their physical needs as well. Jesus bids us look to Him as the focal point of all of our life, to rest in His forgiveness, and to find in Him the secure ground of confidence for facing all of life’s apparent ambiguities and anxieties.

THE WEARING OF MASKS is optional. Many of us will continue to wear masks when we are in the church but it is totally up to each of you to decide what is best.
