AS WE GATHER: Our Bible Reading of the Day is Acts 9:3-20. Jesus confronts unbelievers so they might trust in Him, and He calls them to live on mission for Him as part of His church. God also employs believers to pray for, evangelize, disciple, and commission the people God brings into His church. Today, we will see from Ananias's reaction to God's command that Saul was an inconceivable choice to be saved, much less lead the mission of taking the Gospel to the Gentiles. No one would have foreseen his conversion. Yet God specializes in enlisting enemies to His service and uniting us with His church. Yes, Saul was not the last rebel God saved and commissioned; every believer follows this pattern, including you and me.
