AS WE GATHER: On Easter evening and again the following Sunday, because the disciples saw Jesus alive, they knew the resurrection was real, and they believed in Him. They were then able to witness to their faith in spite of opposition and persecution from the Jewish council. Though grieved by various traits, it was the “living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ” (1 Peter 1:3) that enabled the Early Church to rejoice. The reality of the resurrection becomes evident to people around us as we live out our faith, confessing Jesus as Lord and offering peace and forgiveness in His name. As they come to faith, they join us and “have life in His name” (John 20:31).

BEING BAPTIZED during our 8:00 service today is Bryson Michael, infant son of Jameson and Jennifer Collin.

BEING BAPTIZED during our 10:30 service today is Wells William, infant son of Tyler and Kara Erck.

We pray God’s blessings upon Bryson and Wells and their families.
