AS WE GATHER: “What does this mean?” This question might sound familiar to anyone who has spent time studying Luther’s Small Catechism. As the catechism covers each of the Six Chief Parts, the question is asked again and again: “What does this mean?” And then explanation follows. This same question was asked by many in the crowd on the Day of Pentecost, as recorded in Acts 2. As the people hear and see these miraculous events, they are amazed and perplexed, asking one another, “What does this mean?” In the verses that follow, Peter gives explanation from the Old Testament. He proclaims that God has fulfilled His promise to “pour out His Spirit on all flesh.” The gift of the Holy Spirit has been given for all nations. As you celebrate the Day of Pentecost today, reflect on these events by asking yourself, “What does this mean—for me?”

SLEEPING MATS: The plastic bags you have been donating are being transformed into sleep mats for the homeless. We have a loom set up near the library that helps us weave these mats, which will be donated directly to our community.

This project has several stages, and all ages are welcome to participate:

1. Collecting plastic bags
2. Flattening the bags
3. Cutting off the handles and bottom seams
4. Chaining the loops together
5. Weaving the loops on the loom

❖ Did you know?

It takes approximately 900 plastic bags and about 8 hours to weave one sleep mat.

📅 Join Us in June!

Starting June 2, Tammie Schultz will be in the Atrium on Wednesday nights in June at 7:00 pm. Anyone is welcome to come help—whether you're new to the project or already experienced.
