AS WE GATHER

Miracles tend to be big things in our minds. But the miracles Jesus does are more often tied to simple things of ordinary life – like food! Jesus provides the simple things of life in miraculous ways. That is one of the things the five thousand learned when Jesus took a light lunch and fed thousands. It also confronts us here in simple water that becomes the means to new and everlasting life, or in simple bread and wine that feeds us the flesh and blood Christ, or in the efficacious words that accomplish what they say. But this is also true in our daily lives, as our Good Shepherd supplies all our needs of body and soul.

CONFIRMATION PARENT MEETING

THE FLOWERS

on the alter this morning are given by Mark and Carrie Johnson and Dave and Julie Rames in celebration and memory of their families' August wedding anniversaries. The Johnsons and Rames' will each be celebrating their wedding anniversaries in August along with Dave and Carrie's late parents who would have celebrated their anniversary in August too. We congratulate them and thank them for providing the flowers for our services today.

BEING BAPTIZED

during our 10:30 service today is Emily Ann, daughter of Casidy and Justin Reif. We pray God's blessings upon Emily and her family.

THANK YOU ZION FAMILY

for all the prayers, phone calls, gifts, cards and hospital visits. Thank you Pastor Paul and Pastor Greg for all the prayers, phone calls, and the many hospital and rehab visits. Thanks to the Love Kitchen Ministry for the delicious meals delivered by Ron and Jerilyn, and thanks to the prayer requests group for all the prayers. Karen and I are so thankful for all the love shown to us. God bless you all. ~ LeRoy Voegeli

IN THE JAGGED EDGES OF OUR STORY, WE FIND TRUTH.

Jagged Edges is a faith-centered creative magazine founded on the belief that stories can forge connection, bridge divides, and remind those who are struggling that they do not have to fight their battles alone. Everyone has a story worth telling, and yours might be the one that helps you—and someone else just like you—find healing and peace.
